

POTENTIAL NORWEGIAN PARTNERS FOR BILATERAL COOPERATION

The list below is a list of potential partners who have all been contacted, and they are familiar with the Norway Grant program. They have expressed interest in International engagements, although they may have limited capacity. Kindly note that the ongoing covid-19 pandemic may affect the capacity to engage in international projects.

Area of intervention	Organisation	Contact info.	Comment
Domestic violence	Crisis Centre Secretariat	tsm@krisesenter.com +47 23010300	Umbrella organisation, uniting most of the crisis centres in Norway. They represent their members and are mostly involved with advocacy, information and media, networking, professional development and education of the shelter staff, etc.
	Oslo Crisis Centre	Inger Lise Walmness Larsen Inger-lise@oslokrisesenter.no +47 22 48 03 82	The crisis centres/shelters offer temporary shelter, advice, support and guidance for victims of abuse or violence in the home. The local authority has a statutory obligation to ensure that victims of violence, be they women, men or children, are provided with adequate and appropriate shelter/refuge. There are 48 crisis centres/shelters distributed throughout Norway (at least one in every county). The majority are open 24-hours a day. The centres are open for everyone who needs them. The crisis centres cooperate closely with public services such as: social services, children welfare services, police, family counselling offices and others.
	Vestfold Crisis Centre in Tønsberg	Heidi Tanum +47 33359191 post@krisenett.no	Oslo Crisis centre (since 1978) has the biggest capacity of the 48 centres in Norway, and offers several other services than shelter for women and children (and a separate centre for men and children): e.g. Day centre, legal aid, information activities, children and youth activities. They have extensive external activities, also Internationally, and receive regularly study visits from shelters abroad. Specifically for Oslo, they provide a service also for trafficked women (ROSA Project). Information brochure in English: http://www.oslokrisesenter.no/files/download/Voldsbrosjyre_Engelsk.pdf
	Hønefoss Crisis Centre	Miriam Rasch +47 32170690 krisesenteret@ringerike.kommune.no	Vestfold crisis centre in Tønsberg (since 1981), serves the municipalities in the county Vestfold. It has many of the same services and activities as Oslo Crisis Centre, including a shelter for men. http://www.krisenett.no/index.php/nytt-fra-krisesenteret/languages2/english  Hønefoss Crisis Centre serves several municipalities north of Oslo. The centre is a shelter as well as counseling service for women, men and children who are victims of domestic violence.
	Enerhaugen		Family counselling is a free, low-threshold service available nationwide to couples, families and

	Family Counselling Office	Enerhaugen.familievernkontor@bufetat.no	individuals. The offices provide therapy, advice and counselling when problems, conflicts and crises arise in the family. Family counselling offices are staffed by psychologists, social workers and other specialists in family therapy. Family counselling offices provide couples and family therapy, as well as individual counselling sessions. Children and young people may also be offered counselling. Family counsellors have a duty of client confidentiality. Enerhaugen Counselling Office has had a special focus on domestic violence, and has also been exchanging experience and competence Internationally. Please note that they have limited capacity, but can e.g. receive guests on a study trip
Sexual assault	DIXI Resource centre against rape http://www.dixi.no/wp-content/uploads/2013/01/russisk.pdf	Rannveig Kvifte Andresen (Manager) rannveig.kvifte.andresen@dixioslo.no	DIXI is an interest organization (and NGO), working to assist victims of rape and their relatives, disseminate information about rape related issues, to raise awareness and change attitudes in society. DIXI offers individual and group counselling for victims and relatives. DIXI has a hotline. They offer free of charge, legal advice and information about the health care system. DIXI upholds confidentiality and there is no need for a referral. Please note that they have limited capacity, but can e.g. receive guests on a study trip
Perpetrators	Alternative to violence ATV Oslo	Ragna Lundgaard 22 40 11 10 ragna@atv-stiftelsen.no	Alternative to Violence is a professional research and treatment centre in Norway for violent offenders and people witnessing or being exposed to violence. ATV has 3 main goals: treatment; education; research. ATV is located in 10 locations in Norway, in addition to 4 centres abroad (Åland, Iceland, Sweden, Denmark). ATV is an NGO with funding from several municipalities, from the Norwegian government and from other organizations/legacies. ATV started in 1987, as the first treatment centre for male batterers in Europe.
Abused Children	Children's House http://www.staten.sbarnehus.no/barnhus/oslo/english/	Astrid.johanne.petterсен@politiet.no	Children's House is a public service for children and youth who are victims or witnesses of violence or sexual abuse. The Children's Houses provide advice/guidance, forensic interviews, medical examinations, treatment and prevention, professional development and education. There are 10 centres in Norway.